UP COUNTRY NOTES.

The Paia Rackett Club held a very enjoyable and successful social dance at the new store building in Paia last Saturday evening. A fine large floor and good music added greatly to the success of the affair. A tennis net and rackets were suspended from the center of the ceiling which represented the club's name. Mr. Walter Engle very ably acted as host and floor manager. As the dance was informal and gotten up on very short notice it is quite surprising that about eighty guests were present. Light refreshments were served at eleven and the dance was called shortly after midnight.

The Kihei Gun Club will hold another meet on Sunday next. Members are making some good scores and are all getting to be crack shots. Mr. J. N. S. Williams has been quite ill with fever the past two weeks, but is much improved. He, with his family have been spending a week at Puomalei.

The Paia Dancing Club will hold their next dance at Pieper's Hotel next Saturday evening. The Club have had some jolly good times at their monthly dances.

The Puunene Athletic Association will soon have two good tennis courts. Work was begun on the courts last week and is progressing rapidly. The courts will be situated in the open square opposite and mauka of the Club House. The Association is greatly indebted to the management for their assistance in building the courts.

Carl Roendahl has accepted the position formerly occupied by Mr. Muller in Kahului Store.

The Kahului Baseball team is getting in form for the coming season. The line up has not yet been decided on.

Miss Swan and Miss Miller, who have been visiting Mrs. Alexander, of Paia will shortly return to the States. W. O. Smith was a returning passenger by the Claudine Tuesday.

LAHAINA LINES.

At the Wainee Church last Sunday Rev. Mr. White was installed as pastor for a term of five years. The programme was quite interesting.

The Lahaina National Bank was opened most auspiciously, under the direction of Mr. C. D. Lufkin of Wailuku on Monday of this week.

There were several chilly nights last week, and the mercury went down to 58.

The O. O. R. Society held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Horner, some days ago. Mrs. Decoto contributed a biography of Goethe; and Mrs. Molony read a paper on Faust.

On Friday the public schools closed for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. Simpson, the principal of the Kindergarten, will entertain Mrs. Simpson and Miss Ayers of Wailuku next week.

After the installation of Rev. W. D. K. White, at Wainee Church last Sunday, a Thanksgiving service was held by Maui Lodge, No. 2, K. of P. The programme was as follows: Opening Prayer; Reading the Proclamation of the Supreme Chancellor, by the K. of R. and S., William Kaulakini; Song by the Lodge, "Kuu Aina Hanau E;" Prayer by the Prelate, C. R. Lindsey; Singing by the Lodge; Address of Welcome; Response by Chancellor Commander R. P. Rose; Singing by the Haleakala Lodge; Annual Address by Deputy Supreme Chancellor W. F. Crockett; Song, "I Kuu Hele Io Io;" Presentation of the Offering by Vice Chancellor D. K. Kaulakini; Closing song and Benediction.

A luau was subsequently served in the Lodge Room.

On Wednesday of this week, Kuaiwa, the hero of Lahaina was in Wailuku and was invited to be present in the court room of the Second Circuit Court where Judge Kepikali, acting as the representative of Acting Governor Atkinson, was publicly thanked for the brave act he performed in Lahaina recently in saving from certain death the lives of two drowning Japanese who were hopelessly struggling in the breakers in a wild storm that was raging at that time.

seeing various attempts of rescue fail, jumped into the breakers and after a daring struggle with the waves saved the drowning men, indeed two men. At the same time, I take special interest in this case, as showing friendliness and harmony between the several races resident here.

After communication with the Japanese Community there, I wish to express my high appreciation of the action referred to, and I take liberty to ask you to convey my thanks to the brave Hawaiian through the proper channel.

Very respectfully yours,
K. MATSUBARA,
